MISSION HIGHLIGHTS

"Go also the second mile" Matthew 5:41

The CoVid-19 pandemic has forced us to make some adjustments to our Mission plans this year. We will continue our "Back-to-School" collection of school supplies that will benefit the Brethren School district up north as well as the Arthur Eddy Elementary school here in Saginaw. The school supplies that were donated have been delivered to Arthur Eddy Elementary, however, Brethren School District is only able to accept gift cards to Amazon and Meijer at this time. If you wish to make a monetary donation or gift cards, please mark your envelope "School Supplies". Thank You.

 3RD Grade teacher, Alan Vance of Arthur Eddy Academy in Saginaw, wants to thank our congregation for the donation of school supplies. He is incredibly grateful and uses the supplies either in his classroom, or the children take some of the items home to use for homework.

Join us on Sunday, October 11 in raising funds to help neighbors near and far get the meals they need this year. As the walker's safety is always of paramount concern, this year the 2020 Saginaw County CROP Walk will be VIRTUAL only. We hope that you will walk in family groups, or on your own, and send pictures or video of your walk to the church email secondpres@sbcglobal.net so that we may share them on our website or Facebook page. Please contact Doug Byron @ 989-798-3305 for more information or to receive a donation envelope. Please join us in bringing much needed relief to those in need.

Music Notes

Come and share the joy of music! Rehearsals on Wednesday evenings at 6:00 p.m., outside on the lawn. All ages and skill levels are welcome!

Peace and Grace!

In the past few months, our worship in the sanctuary came to a complete stop. We turned to other means of worship and that was virtual (Live stream or Facebook), and now outdoor worship. Throughout this, we have remained faithful in the Lord and finding new ways to feed our souls. Perhaps you have been wondering what is next and when will we go back to normal? This is a big question everyone may be trying to find answers to. Yet we must continue to keep our eyes on God who saw the people of God through the wilderness for 40 years. Therefore, in the waiting let us look at a passage from 1 Timothy 2:1-2,

“I urge, then, first of all, that petitions, prayers, intercession and thanksgiving be made for all people—²for kings and all those in authority, that we may live peaceful and quiet lives in all godliness and holiness.” (1 Timothy 2:1-2 NIV)

In the passage from First Timothy, the author called his readers to do something that was absolute strange: they should be praying for their kings and leaders. During this time, most Christians were still living in places that were under Roman rule. The Roman emperors were divine. Many thought of them as gods, who should be adored and worshiped. This was a huge problem for a faith, like the newly developing Christianity, which believes in only one god.

You can imagine why this passage from 1 Timothy might have seemed offensive. The Roman emperor was the enemy! He was a false idol! Why should we pray for someone like him? But this passage teaches its readers that they have to pray for everyone. This includes the people in power and the leaders whom they might despise. Why? Because even the emperor was a person made and loved by God.

We might not be ruled by a king, but this passage still rings true for us today. We are during unsettling issues in our nations and it feels like the air is heavy with tension. It can be easy to get caught up in the growing fervor, until we end up shouting curses instead of saying prayers.

But remember who the scriptures teach us to be. We should pray for our each other and leaders as fellow members of the family of God.

This does not mean we must approve of everything that everyone does. But we are called to see the world through the eyes of God's compassion. Our first instinct should be to turn to God in prayer rather than to hatred and anger. First Timothy says, when we pray for our leaders, it can lead to a newfound peace and dignity. As the world swirls with conflict, we should ground ourselves firmly in love. We are called to be examples of how to handle disagreements with compassion. We are called to see through the lens of grace. We are called to pray.

Peace and Blessings!!! Have a safe and Blessed Labor Day!!!

“HIV & AIDS IS STILL A WORLDWIDE ISSUE,”

says Phyllis Wezeman who is a member First Presbyterian Church of South Bend, Indiana. She leads Malawi Matters—a nonprofit that develops and facilitates HIV and AIDS education with the people of Malawi, Africa. Nearly 40 million people are living with HIV/AIDS around the globe; with 26 million of those cases in the sub-Saharan countries of Africa.

“It’s a mission lived in harmony with Malawians,” Wezeman explained. “Our program brings meaningful training at a grassroots level in multiple ways from designing lessons based on storytelling, music, and art to equipping leaders with the information and supplies they need to help their residents understand this disease. We do all of this and more while building relationships that involve everyone in the process of learning and caring for one another.”

Malawi Matters’ HIV and AIDS education is reducing discrimination, overcoming stigma, and connecting people to treatment.
